The incident commander has said that he doubts if we'll be able to get up to the mine tomorrow. The road has been severely damaged from vehicle traffic and the rain we had yesterday. We can get to the base of the mountain, but because they are trying to reconstruct the road and make it accessible for a sampling crew to get up there, we may not even be able to walk the mile or so up to the mine.

I am also trying to accommodate a briefing for him, but the meeting schedule is set by the Incident Command and we'll have to work through what their day is like. Since he's staying overnight, we have some flexibility on when we get up near the mine (if he wants to see Cement Creek) and when there would be a command meeting that he could sit in on.

Hi, Rusty and Clancy

Jared just called. His flight to Denver from Durango cancelled. He will now travel back on Friday.

He said talk tomorrow regarding from where he will fly out either Durango or Farmington on Friday.

Rusty, he will now join mine tour.
